

When we reach a node for the first time, we have the best bit string, because it is guaranteed to be the shortest one with BFS.