

X is the bit string used to reach node M for the first time.

