

- For example, if $1000!$ has n zeroes at the end, what does that imply?

$1000! = y \times 10^n$ for some y where y does not end in a zero.

- Now look at $1000!$ and see from the definition how factors of 10 might arise.